1. [REDACTED] Had lunch with Representative Jack H. McDonald (D., Mich.). McDonald mentioned that [REDACTED] was interested in the possibility of employment with the Agency as a receptionist or as a budget clerk and asked me if I would look into employment possibilities for her. I told him I would be happy to look into it and be back in touch with him.

2. [REDACTED] Bill Woodruff, Counsel, Senate Appropriations Committee, called and asked for any documentation we might have on Senator Russell's position at the time the Agency was created to the effect that the Agency should be civilian rather than military and outside the control of the military establishment. After checking our files, I told Woodruff that we had no record of Senator Russell taking such a position at the time the Agency was created, but I indicated that the general consensus of the Congress in the creation of the Agency followed the position he had outlined. Woodruff is preparing a statement for Senator Stennis' use. He plans to say that Senator Russell, along with others, recognized the need to improve our intelligence procedures after World War II and in establishing the Agency wanted to assure that it would be outside the control of the military; reporting directly to the President. He asked if our records indicated anything to the contrary and I told him they did not.

3. [REDACTED] In response to his call of Friday and after checking with [REDACTED] I advised Mr. O'Neill of the Air Force, Security Special Projects office, that briefing of Mr. Hyman Fine, Senate Armed Services Committee staff, for codeword clearance (for a briefing to be conducted later this week at SAC Headquarters) is a matter of responsibility for the Air Force and should be conducted in accordance with Air Force procedure. Mr. O'Neill told me that the TWX, which he forwarded on Friday concerning codeword briefing for Mr. Fine, should be disregarded. His office will follow through on arrangements for briefing Mr. Fine.

4. [REDACTED] Called Ed Braswell, Chief of Staff, Senate Armed Services Committee, and alerted him to Senator Case's press release on Radio Free Europe. Braswell thanked me for letting him know about this and said he would get a copy of the release on the Hill.

5. [REDACTED] Talked to Carl Marcy, Senate Foreign Relations Committee staff, about Senator Case's press release regarding Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty. Marcy said it had been "lying around" a couple of days and was already in the hands of some members of the press. He therefore doubted that anything could be done to cut it off at this stage. He claimed to have no knowledge of what had stimulated Senator Case to take this action.

Woodruff is now much more relaxed about the problems the Senate encountered in the conference on the Defense Appropriations bill, but said next year he intends to see to it that any language which goes into the military authorization bill is clearly tied to the funds to be covered.
